HOLY WEEK and EASTER WORSHIP

THE MESSENGER
April 2024

Very early on Sunday morning, just at sunrise, they went to the tomb. 3 On the way they were asking each other, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" 4 But as they arrived, they looked up and saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled aside.

Mark 16:2-4

Greetings in the name of Jesus!

We are beginning the season for invitations. Over the past few weeks, my bride Jenn and I have received invitations to some upcoming family weddings. And soon mailboxes and inboxes will be filled with invites to confirmation and graduation parties, as well as summer get-togethers.

For anyone who celebrates a special event, an important part of the process is determining who you will invite. Who do you want to share your special moment with? Who will make it more meaningful?

This Sunday, March 24, begins the most important week of the church year, which is often referred to as "Holy Week." In 8 days we have four different worship opportunities:

- Palm Sunday, March 24 - when we commemorate the day Jesus entered Jerusalem riding a donkey to people praising God with shouts of "Hosanna!"
- Maundy Thursday, March 28 - when we remember the night Jesus commemorated the Last Supper and was arrested.
- Good Friday, March 29 - when we take time to meditate on our Savior's death on a cross for our sins.
- Easter Sunday, March 31 - when we celebrate Jesus rising from the dead and all the gifts we have through faith in Him.

I encourage you to do two things this Holy Week. First, come and worship. It will not be the same without you.

Second, I encourage you to pray about who you can invite to one or more of the services. Who would you want to share these special moments with? Who will make it more meaningful?

All of our leaders at Trinity look forward to worshipping with you this Holy Week and beyond!

In Christ's hope,

Pastor David

LEARNING ABOUT THE BODY OF CHRIST

Over 95 youth, parents, volunteers, and various ministry leaders gathered at the school on Wednesday, March 6, during JR Discipleship Connect. The goal of the evening was to build awareness and remind our teens and their parents that we are ALL called to use our gifts and talents as a part of the Body of Christ.

A MESSAGE FROM MR. HOFFMANN, PRINCIPAL

The Letter

In my freshman year of college, I received an unexpected letter. It was from my grandparents' address in Missouri but the unfamiliar, elegantly flowing handwriting left me puzzled. To my astonishment, it was written by my grandfather. Prior to this, only my grandmother wrote to me, signing on behalf of both. I had always known my grandfather as a strong, silent figure who served as an MP in World War II, a Master Sergeant in the Air Force, and later a Budweiser semi driver until retirement. I never saw him as a letter-writer, but this letter proved me wrong.

His letter came to me at a time of busyness and stress at school. His four hand-written pages sent a message I never forgot. He wrote that he was aware of what was going in my life at school. He wrote that hard work was important but to beware of "burning the candle at both ends" (his exact words). He wrote that he was thinking about me and that I should just ask if I needed anything. Then he told me he was proud of me, that he loved me, and that he was praying for me.

His letter reached deep inside of me; not only for what he said but that he took the time to write me. This big tough man, who carried things deep, and who spoke very little about his faith, took time to write me a 4-page letter about life and then faith. I still have that letter and think about it when my world gets harried.

We are coming to the tail end of the Lenten season, with Holy Week starting next week. This is a time of both sorrow and joy. It is a time set aside for looking inward at our sin and then looking outward to the cross of Good Friday. One of the things I love most about this season and Holy Week is the intentional slowdown for reflection—or what should be a slowdown.

Amid all the busyness, rushing around, and scheduled events, the Lord reaches out His hand to slow us down or perhaps send us a letter. In His written Word He tells us that He knows what is going on in our lives and He is aware of what burdens us. He tells us to breathe and then know that He is our God and He can carry the burden. He says that He is enough for us. He tells us to just ask Him if we need anything. He tells us that He loves us—so much that He put His love into action. He took His only Son and sent Him in trade for the sin that we committed—in trade for the punishment we deserved—in trade for our very lives. In what Christ has done for us, we now are given life eternal. His letter to us is not signed in beautiful flowing cursive but instead in big red letters that read, "PAID IN FULL".

I pray that this Lent can be a time for you to slow down, breathe, and reflect on the depth of God's love for you.

LEARNING ABOUT THE BODY OF CHRIST

7th & 8th graders and their parents attended our last CONNECT night where we talked about the Body of Christ. We closed with a “ministry fair” that had 23 ministry volunteers to share the ministry they are a part of, their purpose, and how people can get involved, support, or pray for that ministry.

BASKETBALL MINISTRY HAS COME TO AN END FOR THIS YEAR

We had a great season with three teams from Trinity competing. Our teams included both members and non-members. Here is what two of our seniors had to say about the ministry and being on the team:

Playing basketball through Trinity has meant the world to me. It's always great to know there's a backup plan for your basketball career if school ball doesn't work out. It has also been a great way to connect with people and expand basketball skill.

~Drew Dicken has played all four years for our team

Trinity has been such an important place in my life for the last three years. The friendships and relationships that I made are truly special. Thank you Trinity for getting me closer to God and building unforgettable memories.
